of Mr. Morgan from a woodcut in the Stockholm Weekly Svensk. It was the work of his life, the crowning effort of his genius.

Enclosing the portrait in a massive gilded frame he shipped it to Mr. Morgan, c. o. d., leaving it to the great banker's generosity to fix the size of the check. The picture arrived in due time and was held up by the Custom House people.

Mr. Morgan was notified to call at the Public Stores, pay the duty on a 25 valuation and take away his portrait. With surprising disregard for the sacredness of Swedish art, he refused to accept the

The usual time allowed for unclaimed exports to remain in the Public Stores elapsed in the case of the picture to-day and it was put up at auction. Somebody started off with a bid or $10. Another bid $15. Mr. Wallaco boosted the bidding stions and finally secured the Norse idea of what J. Piercont Morgan looks like for $25.

Passengers Injured in Collision on Boston and Maine Road in Worcester.

WORCESTER, Mass., Oct. 2,-In a head-on collision between a passenger and a freight train on the Worcester, Nashua & Portland division of the Bor don'. Maine Railroad, at Barber's Crossthg, this city, to-day, seven persons were slightly injured and several cars The injured are: Mrs. Anna A. Kind.

Southbridge: Mrs. Anna L. Avery, Man-onester, N. H.; Mrs. Louise Wiggin, 72 Years old, Manchester, N. H.; John G. Letth, Lowell, Mass. J. G. Bowers, Nashua, N. H., conductor of the pas-senger train. Arthur Portlance, Wor-Nashua, N. H. conductor of the passenger train: Arthur Portlance, Worcester, engineer of passenger train; John W. Howes, Worcester, Breman on passenger train.

The wrick was caused by Engineer Portlance; who was an charge of the passenger locemotive, running by a block signal. The engineer admits that he ran by the signal, but said that the smoke and steam were so thick that the shade and steam were so thick that the shade was obliterated, and he could not left whether or per it was set.

The passenger train life, worcester station shortly fore noon, bound for Nashua. At Pyber's Crossing, about two miles from the Worcester station, on a curve, it met a freight train bound from Nashua for Worceste, and composed of two locomotives and forty-six cars.

Throwing the reversing levers on both locomotives had little effect, the trains were so near, and the passenger engine and the leading locomotive of the freight train were locked with each other, rose in the air and fell over on lifer aides beathe the track. Practically all of the glass in the passenger canches was smashed and eight relight cars were demolished. The tender of the passenger locomotive was driven almost entirely through the baggage tar of the passenger roan. Every passenger on the train was thrown from his seat by the force of the collision. Enrincer Portlance an Pireman Howes raceived their injuries by jumping.

The tracks were plocked for hours.

Mrs. Weary—'What! Shopping on washday! Why, I've just got my clothes ready for the line."

Antu Drudge-"And mine are all ironed. I'm-not a bit tired, either, so I'll spend the afternoon at the bargain counters. If you had washed the Fels-Naptha way, you could join me."

Fels-Naptha soap will make kitchen work easier, just as it does the washing of clothes. Fels-Naptha will clean anything that is cleanable, and do it far better and quicker than any other soap.

Try it on your pots, pans, dishes and other kitchen utensils. It will "cut" the grease quick as a wink and leave them bright and shiny. It will clean glassware and china, and polish them at the same

And because it will do this far better in cold or lukewarm water, there is no danger of breaking fragile glass and china by putting them in scalding water.

Kitchen sinks, shelves, cupboard and floor should all be scrubbed with Fels-Naptha. It whitens woodwork as well as cleans it, and neither roaches nor ants will infest a kitchen where the cleaning is regularly done with Fels-Naptha, and chips of the soap placed where they congregate.

Follow the easy directions on the red and green wrapper.
